Historian Report: None

Commissioners of Religious Affairs, Publicity, Student Affairs, Ecology : None

Commissioner of Assemblies and Rallies: None

Commission of Hospitality: None

Representative Reports: 5th, 6th, 7th, 8th and Student Affairs - None

Commissioners of Athletics: Ciara Jene Castro asked if the Halloween Committee could use the hoops to hang the spider. The moderators said that the hoops could be used.

Moderator's Report: Mrs. Hogle asked if Historians are taking pictures. Mrs. Young mentioned that if Historians are using phones for taking pictures to not get distracted by other social media and only to take pictures. Mrs. Dickert mentioned that she posts photos on Facebook of events the school does and that Historians can pull photos from there too. It was decided by the moderators that the higher officers (president, vice president, secretary and treasurer) go with the aids to judge the doors for Red Ribbon Week. It was also decided that each will be given a ballot to vote for the door they like the most on their on time and that the rule was that you can not vote for your own class door. Mrs. Young also asked if representatives are going to their assigned grades to talk about the highlights of the meetings. Student Affairs are supposed to go to the lower grades and talk about the highlights of the meetings too.

Old Business:

- I. People have already been assigned to Classes for Halloween
- II. Red Ribbon Week Judges for doors - Teacher Aids, Taylor Barnes, and higher officers (president, vice president, secretary, and treasurer)
- III. Committees have been already been formed (for Halloween Parade, Advent Project, Adopt Many Families)

New Business

- I. Halloween Committee - Setup is being done Monday after school. They also decided among themselves who is judging which class.
- II. Halloween Groups - There will be awards given to best teacher group costume, best duo costume, best boy and girl costume for each class and if there is extra time best student council costume.
- III. Parade - Classes are to be walked once around the gym. But before that classes are to go to St. Jude's first and then lead to the gym.
- IV. Signs - Halloween Committee does the signs for the cones in gym. People assigned to lead classes for Halloween make their own signs.
- V. Adopt Many Families (Nov. 30) - Some leftover wrapping paper for presents is in the storage room. Some people last year brought in some wrapping paper. If there is not enough wrapping paper it is to be purchased. The free dress for the Wednesday money goes to buy presents.
- VI. Promote Adopt Many Families - Suggested that flyers could go home with everyone and also to be posted on Facebook. Encourage families to donate more than what is needed either money or toys.
- VII. Signage - Publicity and Student Affairs to do posters for Adopt Many Families. Classes were also recommended to get in and do posters for their door on the inside like Red Ribbon Week. To get name on the poster it was suggested to pay in order for names to be put on posters.
